

NEW VACANCY

TRAFALGAR MARQUEES

Marquee Crew Wanted!

We're looking for both part-time and full-time staff and are pretty flexible around you, so if you're looking for a job to fit around your studies, then this could be it.

The job is simple- creating temporary space for our customers by building and taking down marquees. We're a growing marquee company with a great customer base, and we're looking for the right team to help us achieve that.

It's a physically demanding job so the right attitude is key, good strength and stamina is helpful and being able to drive a bonus. There is the opportunity to travel right across the South East, and some long days means excellent earning potential for those wanting to earn good money. There is also scope for progression within the business and additional training on things like the forklift is available too.

We look after the team with competitive pay, barbecues, a well stocked beer fridge at the warehouse and regular staff events.

Hours: Usually Mon - Fri, but occasional weekends.
Salary range: £10ph starting salary, going up to £11ph after 3 months. Up to £12ph for experienced crew.

Driving licence and your own car strongly preferred.
