

Hospitality & Catering

Welcome to Level 3 Diploma in Professional Cookery (7133)

Course details

- NVQs are assessed at work or in a simulated workplace. For each unit your assessor watches and asks questions as you perform a task, or looks at a portfolio of work that you've built as formal evidence of your learning. Then they confirm you've got the skills to do the job well.

Units of study (amongst others)

- Prepare & Cook complex Meat dishes
- Prepare & Cook complex Fish dishes
- Prepare & Cook complex bakery & enriched dough products
- Prepare & Cook complex Hot & Cold desserts
- Prepare & Cook complex vegetables
- Prepare & Cook complex stocks, sauces & soups

Thank you for choosing to study Hospitality & Catering at Brighton Metropolitan College.

- The first week of the course will be your induction. Your full timetable will be given to you during this week and will be fully explained to you during this time. During your Induction week you will have the opportunity to get to know the other students on the course, as well as your lecturers and your pastoral tutor. We will also complete activities that introduce you to your course and help you confirm that it is right for you.

- You will enrol on your course on the afternoon of Friday 30th August. 3pm – 4pm. The time and date will be confirmed by email, please look out for this and arrive during your designated time slot.

STARTING INFORMATION
